

WISCONSIN LEGISLATIVE COUNCIL AMENDMENT MEMO

2005 Senate Bill 375

Senate
Amendment 1

Memo published: November 30, 2005

Contact: Ronald Sklansky, Senior Staff Attorney (266-1946)

Senate Bill 375 in part regulates the method by which a manufacturer gains an interest in a special tool that has been used to produce parts ordered by a customer or that the customer has caused a manufacturer to use. One of the conditions that must occur in order for the manufacturer to obtain this interest is that a customer has not, within 120 days after notice of the manufacturer's intent to terminate the customer's interest, claimed possession of the special tool or agreed to other arrangements with the manufacturer for storage of the special tool. This provision mistakenly uses the term "customer" to refer to the manufacturer's notice.

Senate Amendment 1 substitutes the word "manufacturer" for the word "customer" in order to correctly refer to the manufacturer's notice.

Legislative History

On November 22, 2005, the Senate Committee on Judiciary, Corrections and Privacy introduced and adopted Senate Amendment 1 to Senate Bill 375 and recommended the bill for passage, as amended. Both actions were taken on votes of Ayes, 5; Noes, 0.
